Sir,

It was quite shocking how you assumed that AANIVAER is your real life story. I dont even remember meeting you anywhere.

And it will be bad for people who really worked hard day and night with me for AANIVAER if i am to make someone part of AANIVAER whom i dont even know.

And AANIVAER was not about one person but about whole TAMILEEZHAM people.

As far as my interviews in many Websites, International radios, and in my book i have clearly stated how Aanivaer was formed and made as a movie.

It will be problematic for you if you start claiming AANIVAER is your real life story which is not true.

And as far i enquired my contacts in Kilinochi nobody is aware of you.

So kindly refrain from attaching your name in anyway to AANIVAER which may cause more trouble to you.

Wish and pray God that you are cleared of your problems.

Thanks

john
